

Scenario:

You are a college freshman who is having to manage your new life by yourself. After the first couple weeks, you are struggling to keep up with some classes. You end up falling off your sleep schedule which causes you to be late for a couple classes. You want to find an easy place to remind you of all your upcoming deadlines so that it's easier to manage work with play.

Task 1. Search your class building and find the fastest way to your next class.

Task 2. Prepare your alarm. Set an alarm for the next morning.

Task 3. Set your class schedule for the week.

Notes:

Things to change

- Have a way to delete old alarms.
- Need to put selected route in full screen
- Add a place to start from.

Things to keep.

- option to add multiple accounts
- always having a home button on each page
- having an am/pm switch on the clock.
